

EVERGREEN (I KNOW OF A RIVER)

(Alan Humm)

[Note: the blue lines are back vocs; underlines are on-voice harmonies; grey is whispered]

From the throne of Jerusalem flows the wellspring of life Healing to all who drink and sight to the blind

The mythical/mystical Jor- dan finds its way to the sea And washes the land of God in the waters of peace

{ refrain 1: }

I know of a river

It's silent and deep

Runs on forever

Like a river of peace

The tree of eternal life draws its life from that stream Forever in season
its leaves evergreen

Evergreen

[The voice of the turtledove]

Evergreen

[is heard in the land]

Evergreen

[Where hope springs eternal]

[and joy never ends]

{ bridge: }

No evil can harm you no burglar break in

And Death cannot find you when you drink from that stream

{ refrain 1 }

{ refrain 2: }

I've heard a lot about Jordan

How it's chilly and wide

But I know of a river

that will never run dry
